

Berkeley Empirical Legal Studies Graduate Fellowship

Academic Year 2023-2024

Center for the Study of Law and Society, Berkeley Law

Application Period February 6 – April 6, 2023

Please email your application to CSLS@law.berkeley.edu

Application Procedure:

Your application should include the following:

1. Coversheet, available on the CSLS website.
2. Research statement (3-page maximum) that includes:
  - Statement of the research problem that your research is addressing, including theoretical rationale and research questions and/or hypotheses,
  - Description of empirical research methods and data sources,
  - Statement of how the project will contribute to the study of law and society, to one or more disciplines or sub-disciplines, and to your future research activities,
  - The stage of your research project at present (e.g., pre-, current, or post-data collection).
3. Curriculum Vitae
4. Brief letter of support from research advisor. Please ask your reference to email the letter directly to csls@law.berkeley.edu . If they prefer, they can also email CSLS Faculty Director Professor Catherine Albiston at calbiston@law.berkeley.edu .
5. Email the coversheet, research statement, C.V., and letter of support to csls@law.berkeley.edu by the April 6th deadline with the subject heading: Application for 2023-24 BELS Fellowship